

CHULTAN MIDWINTER CANDLE (CANDLE OF THE DEEP)

DDAL00-04 Winter's Flame

A product of a pain-staking enchantment, the candle acts as an anchor for the delicate and fickle spark of an enchanted flame. As it burns it emits a slight citrus scent, not unlike that of a pembedon. It cannot be extinguished unless it is clipped from the wick and gives light and heat as a normal candle would.

Wondrous item, common
